

Stephen Day Bio/Career Highlights

- Born in San Francisco, grew up in Canada and France
- studied Sarod in India for three years with legendary Sarod player Ustad Amjad Ali Khan
- travelled with Nobel Peace Prize nominated eminent spiritual leader Shri Mataji Nirmala Devi
- organized and performed in a concert at the United Nations Headquarters in New York City
- L.A. based composer with hundreds of network T.V. and feature film credits
- has written several albums of songs based on his travel and life experience
- has performed in over 35 countries and 6 continents. Venues: Kodak Theater (L.A.), Town Hall (N.Y.)
- Won a World Peace Award from the Global Peace Foundation in 2017
- founded a non-profit organization (501c3) relating the Arts to personal Transformation in 2008
- has taught and developed innovative programs in Music and Film for L.A. based High Schools.